Financing Strategies for Singapore and Overseas Projects

18 May 2018 (Friday) 1.30pm to 4.45pm

Financing Strategies for Projects in Singapore and Overseas

Singapore construction companies have been experiencing price pressures and very slow payments (some more than 270 days!) in their contracting works in Singapore. Competition is very brutal. This challenge is multiplied many folds when it comes to overseas projects.

This workshop provides the following insights:

- Financing landscape for projects in Singapore & overseas (government programs, banks, and investors)
- How to structure a project to improve cashflow of the construction company
- Sneak preview of opportunities on the China belt & road initiative – how Singapore companies can participate?

Mr Wee Chin Chuan, Executive Director, Oriell Management Consulting Pte Ltd

Mr. Wee Chin Chuan is a Executive Director of Oriell Management Consulting Pte Ltd. He is certified Practising Management Consultant and one of SPRING Singapore's panel of participating consultants. Mr Wee has consulted and assisted many companies in Asia and Europe on business and project financing matters. These projects comprised of small sub-contracting, equipment supplies to infrastructure projects which involve banks, investors and multilateral agencies such as Asian Development Bank, World Bank and Asian Infrastructure Investment Bank (AIIB). Mr. Wee has an Engineering Degree from National University of Singapore (First Class Honours) and an MBA from Imperial College of London.
